

EMBL Australia PhD Travel Grants Program

Train at one of EMBL's five European facilities, go to a conference or take a short course.

EMBL Australia will sponsor ten of the best PhD students in Australia to train at the prestigious European Molecular Biology Laboratory.

With an EMBL Australia PhD travel grant, you could take a short course, attend a conference or work alongside some of the world's best young researchers at EMBL's five facilities: in Heidelberg and Hamburg in Germany; Grenoble in France; Hinxton in Cambridgeshire, England; or Monterotondo in Rome, Italy.

EMBL offers courses on a range of topics, including next-generation sequencing and bioinformatics. For a full list of upcoming events, visit: www.embl.de/training/events.

Apply now for travel in 2018.

Grant value: You can apply for financial support of up to $2,000 for a short visit of up to six weeks.

Closing date: Applications close on 31 October 2017 (for travel during the period 1 January to 30 June 2018).

The travel grants are open to students in biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, informatics, engineering and molecular medicine who are currently enrolled in a PhD program at any Australian university, and have not yet submitted a thesis.

To apply, and for more information on these grants and our other student programs, visit the EMBL Australia website: www.emblaustralia.org/careers-education.

About EMBL Australia

EMBL Australia is a life science network that maximises the benefits of Australia's associate membership of The European Molecular Biology Laboratory (EMBL).

Officially launched in 2010, EMBL Australia aims to strengthen the nation's global position in life sciences by creating opportunities for:

- internationalising Australian research via the EMBL Australia Partner Laboratory Network
- training the best students and early-career researchers, and
- accessing key international infrastructure.

For more information on all of EMBL Australia's programs head to www.emblaustralia.org.
